COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE Hongkong, Monday Evening.

The usual duliness of mail day has prevailed in commercial diroles to-day and only a mish moveopened dull this morning at $500 for Patna but soun declined to $595 at which rates several lot's changed hands thereby causing this price to remain firm to the close. Benares is nominally quoted at $580 while some sales of Ma-Jwa were made to-day: at $740. There has been a slight movement in cotton and sales are reported of 100 bales Bangal at 20:50 and 310 bales Hungarian Diet opened-the rescript toges the New Shanghai at $24,50. In piece goods the accessive of prompt settlement of differences ex- sales embrace 3.500 piece 8.4 Grey Shirtings at isting between the Imperial Government and the $3.60, 1,000 pieces 715 %, 1 leths at $3.31, 2,000 pieces 6th at $2.60, 120 pieces Scarlet Spanish Emperor of Austria promises Hungary respon- stripes at 84 cents and 500 pieces searlet Long

In the produce market the movement has been confined to 5,000 picule Saigon Rice at $2.15 to $2.30, 1,000 bags Flour at $2.00 500 pion's Yellow Peas at $2 50 and 200 pionls > Prequent Cabinet Councils are new being beld. Small Green Peas at $3.00. Exchange and the Share Market have beenquiet. Considering the advanced stage of the season, and the interruption during the past forthight occasioned by the Obristmas Holidays, business though very far from being active, or even same-

I factory, still shows a respectable total. Prices have been governed entirely by the law of supply and demand, and there has been apparent the same cautious policy and disinglination to purchase beyond the exigencies of the monient. that has been so conspiculus a fonture in the murkets some time back. Among the natives this is perhaps due capecially at the present time. from a reluctance on their part in view of the neur approach of their new year, to make any new contracts beyond immediate necessities while among the other member of the mercantile com: munity there is prevalent's general feeling hears or less of districts and wand of confidence that much retardaths easy mevement of business, and causes every one to look upon his neighbor with more or Turkey preparing Constitutional system of Go- less suspicion. It is to hoped that this latter will p ion be dispelled, but in view of the former no very great amount of business can be looked for until nf or the middle of February, when the Chinese will have made their yearly settlements among themselves and be in a position to begin business upon a new basis it were. The receipts of Opium for the period under review comprise only 2000 chests Malwa by the mail stoamer Emen, while the exports and clearances amount to about 2300 ehests Malwa 1000 chests Patna and 500 chests Benares leaving at ck of 1351 chests Malwa, 650 of Patna and Extradician Trusty between England and 500 of Benares. In the early part of the fortnight Patna ruled very steadily and price tive demand having almost ceased and a Bear movement prevailing rates declined to $600 and whole business transacted has been comparative. y limited and no material alteration in price is expected until the receipt of advices us to the below Pains, but to day there is a greater difference the closing price being $580. The market for Malwa opened in the boglinning of the fortnight at $775 owing the larger arrival than expected by the Mail stenmer as also to unfavorable advices from the North. This price ruled with a very moderate business doing until the 27th when the Emen argived with a large quantity and prices at once drouped to $750 and to-day it is even quoted at $740 at which however there are few buyers as lower offers are reported. The movement in Cotton flots up rather small and prices show little change throughout the formight. The sales amount to 4 220 bales or 2,457 b les Native Cotton, 1.073 of Bengal, 300 Sinm, 300 Bombay and 90 Rangoon. In Piline Goods the sales comprise 9 500 piece 8.4 Grey Shirtings. at $3.60, 2 500 lbs at $3.30 to $3.35, 4,000 pirces 71ba f. Clothaut $3.18 to $3 20, 500 6lbs at $2.50 1,000 pieces Chinez at $2.00 to $2.75, 500 bicors Brucades at $1.00 to $1.25, 750 pieces Tark y Reds at $3.75. 340 pleace assorted Spanish Stripes at 5 cents to $1, 480 pieces Hill Long Ella at : $10-610 pieces 88 Cambets at $20 50 and 310 pieces Listings at $18. The business done on Produce has been quite below the average. Rice has been in small demand and prices are weaker for most kinds. Sales during the fortnight amount to about 66.000 pouls or 21 000 from Bankok, 37,000 from Saigan and 5000 from Barmesa. Sugar has been in rather better request and prices show a shade of white and 2400 picule brown. There is little alto-Welsh and 1007 tons Australian. Quotations are 13.50 for English and Welshitram alongside and Liverpool Uolton market quiot and prices droop- little improvement in Tonnage. There has been some demand for small vessels from the Burmah Wednesday Morning - The commercial news by the mail is meagre. The Bank rate is still 4 per cent, consul. 90 The Bank of Hindustan hid been put in liqui ation, the loves are stated at £713,000. The capital of the new Agra Black Than been all aubscribed. The P. & O Co. were to hold a meeting on the 6th ultime, to appoint new directors and give a general report. Telegr phic desputches from London via Kinchta were to cease winter months and opening of the port of Pientsin. the the slightest sign of improvement visible. Several arrivals had taken place. Supplies were so much in excess of requirements that prices bas been received from Oaleutta. TWELFTH SALES.

tl 2:39 10 O Ceylon 21st September, 1g65. TO SHIPPERS AND CONSUMERS BUTTER IN THE OHINA AND MAST INDIA PORTS. T has been brought to our notice that certain parties are packing BUTTER for the China market, and representing themselves as "solu ng me for Honous L Bill," and that the representations made by one of said parties in China had the effect to obtain for the so-called "Sinn's brand a price greater than that obtained for the HUTTER packed by us. While we care nothing about the use of Mr. S LL's name, we feel a regard for our own reputation, and du not wish to remain under even a suspicion of inferiority which a difference in price inevitably suggests. We therefore beg leave to call your attention to the following facts. Our Mr. O. H. PRATT WAS connected in business with H. L. Sind from 1844 to 1856. Mr. SILL retired from active business in 1853, retaining a special interest until 1856, when the connection ceased, and since that time has not packed any BUTT: R for shipment. From 1847 to 1858 Mr. PEATT personally selected and supervised the packing of every nound of BUTTER that left this port branded "H. L. Sign." Ic 1857 and 1858 he branded "C. H. PRATT, sucoessor to H. L. Sign." but since that time has preferred to let his BUTTER go under his own name and stand upon its merits. . Mr. Pharr, as Mr. Stee's partner and successor is the only party legally entitled to use the brand. "H. L. Sille" and the present packers of the so-called "Sill's brand" of BUTTER, knowing that fact, attempt to get around it by atyling themselves "sole agents;" the fallacy of which is apparent from the fact that Mr. Stat kas not packed any BUTTER for over thirteen years. With over twen y years' experience in packing for the China market, centrolling some of the beet dairies in the country, and both partners giving their constant personal attention to the selection and packing of every pound of BUTTER

Old Fashioned Sine, (From the Saturday Review.) The history of mankind may be true d by the sins which have gone out of fashion. Not that it at all follows that mankind tonds to perfection for even to improvement. There is a fashion in sin- separately. Very desirable residences, ning, as in other things. One popular ain may have gone out with the use of wigh, but another has perhaps been introduced with cylindrical hats; if so it has brought its punishment along with it. Moral diseases change their type like physical. I'm example, old-fa-bioned moralists are always talking about the wick-duces of revenge, People seem really to have taken an equisite warned against vielding to its tomptations as a Water Laid on &c. 40, 20, working man of the present day is warned against drinking gin. It is supposed to be up- 1847; doubtedly wrong, but so pleasant that it requires alm at superhuman strength to refrain from it. Now what civilised being at the present day really thinks it worth while to take any trouble to revenge himself? If any one has injured. his vanity, has treated him in public places with contempt, or exposed his folly, he is rather glad necession chase, but to make vengaand any ver-

than otherwise to pay off his adversary when the serious object of the ight, mu h more to devote a life to staffer the melodromatic fastion, is so rare ng to be almost an evidence of insanity. In old days, the case would naturally be different, A feudal baron, in the interact dulness of his conntry life, would very likely have nothing else to think of than the injury done to him by some brutal likeness of bimself; the one great excitement of his life being a fight; it swould be always employing his imagination at od i times in taking his enemy at a discoveritings, gutting him down. and easting him into a louthsome dangeon. He might brond over this for hours, when his modern counterpart would be reading the Times It would doubtless be extremely gratifying when he could be on the Praya Grands, facing the Public ultimately change there amisble fancies into facts. Garden, and lately occupied by the Poruvina and get his enemy hodily into the loadhsome dun. Consul. The House is in excellent repair, and Godowas. Offices, Shope, &c., and] geon before his eyes. It would be a real addition contains It Lofty and Spacious Rioms, with to his parrow round of amusements to glost over Verendah, good Godowns and Outhouses. his unlucky victim in the dungeon; to ask him | For particulars apply to now be liked mould's bread-and at higher water and perhaps ultimately to put his eyes out, or starve him, after the playful custom of the period Losthsome dangeons have, however, gone out of fashion. If a country gentleman were to get another into his power, and lock him up in the coal cellar, there would be a row about it in the naners; he therefore gives up meditating such an action as a court of real life; he does not even anticipate very seriously that he will ever be able to knock his enemy's head off, though he sometimes uses some such traditional force words as roughly expressing his feelings. A distractions are more plentiful than they used by he-even in the country-it is much easier b forget all about his injury, thus combining obedience to Christian morality with amusomene. Mr. Mulie's Library has no doubt done a good deal towards eradicating this evil passion. R venze is still known, indeed, and is exemplified by occasional murderors, and eccentric obpachelors and ladies; but in the classes where time is fully occupied it has gone pretty well nut of fashion; the pleasure is not worth the trouble. It is still believed in by novelists, begause it is very convenient for dramatic purposes, and because nine-tenths of novelists draw, not from life, but from their predocessors. But even novelists are beginning to find it very hard t introduce it with any probability. It is one of the many excellences attributed to Mr. Gny Livingstone that he has a very low opinion of the Christian virtue of forgiveness. But the author is amusingly unable to give him an opportunity of gratifying his revengeful spirit. He gree about oursing and swearing a good deal; but the worst. he can do, when it ormes to the put it, is to doeldedly out the person who has offended him. Duelling is gone out of fashion, and murder is not common in good society. The way in which the hernes of most novels revenge themselves, is by one of those elaborate and djaholical plots which have, so far as we have erer heard, absolute'y no counterpart in real life. People sumstantes tell a good many lies to get up the shares of a railway company, or to said them a house in the betting; but the plot of flution—the elaborate arrangement in which the villain brings the virtueus characters under the influence of a diabolical enchantment. causing everybody to mi-understand everybody rise throughout two volumes and a half-is simply fictitious. No one has time enough to

The Origa Famine. A telegram from India, announcing that hal the population of Orisis have perished in the famine must be a lie. Why, we are Christians, and if but one woman so dies, move the whole force of the State to secure inquiry and relief from a horror which chills the warm comfort of our wealth. It is a lie, incredible and absurd. And yet-and yet-and vet. Suppose, when the poteto crop failed in Ireand no store of realised wealth, and no roads, and no Government, would the awful statement of that telegram -a statement which, could we but realise its true meaning, would have condensed all British shergy into one franzied effort for relief-have been impossible!
